THE ORIGINAL
MORRIS & Co

FOUNDED BY WILLIAM MORRIS IN 1861

William Morris (1834-1896)

William Morris, the great designer, poet, thinker and craftsman, was also known as the father of modern design in the latter part of 19th century in England. Morris found great values in the "pleasure of craft making" and the "beauty of natural materials," and this belief of his became a movement that spread throughout the world. Before long, it reached Japan in the Taisho period as a folk craft movement. About 120 years have passed since William Morris's death, however, the "belief" that he left has been inherited wholeheartedly and his excellent designs and styles survive to this day in Morris & Co.'s interior decor, along with an aesthetic strategy. It is created continuously and distributed around the world. It seems that his quote, "Have nothing in your house that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful," is still meaningful to us living in the present day.

Philippe Weisbecker

He was born in France in 1942. After graduating from the École Nationale Supérieure des Arts Décoratifs in Paris, he moved to New York in 1968.

He produced his own artwork while working on many illustrations for American advertisements and editorials. In 2006, he returned to France. With deep connections to Japan, in 2000 he held his first private exhibition at the Creation Gallery G8.

In 2002, he stayed for 4 months at Villa Kujoyama in Kyoto, as part of the Artist-in-Residence program run by the Institut Français du Japon. He has also held private exhibitions in the Gallery A4 (Tokyo) in 2020, and the Takenaka Carpentry Tools Museum in 2021. At ATELIER MUJI GINZA, he held a new works painting exhibition in 2021, and held the HANDMADE exhibition in 2022. From March to April 2023, he held private exhibitions at the Gallery Alaska and the Pearl Gallery. He also worked on an official art poster for the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. He is currently active in Paris, and continues to present his works in Europe, America and Japan.

100th anniversary design message

I have created a design that looks like it was made with masking tape.
Actually, I produce it by adding colors to washi paper.
100ans means 100 years in French.
But to boldly keep a little mystery, and because I am French,
I have intentionally written it in the French language.

Paul Cox

He was born in Paris in 1959, and his parents were musicians from the Netherlands. He studied art on his own. While he mainly focuses on paintings, he is active in a widerange of genres, such as picture books, stage arts, posters and advertisements. He has published many picture books, and the book "Enohanashi (histoire de l'art)" has even been translated in Japanese. It has won awards at the Bologna Children's Book Fair. For advertisements in Japan, he has worked on Christmas ads for Lumine, as well as ads for the opening of the Hokuriku Shinkansen. In 2017 he published his first collection of works in Japan, titled "Paul Cox: Design & Art" (published by PIE International). Since 2019 he has produced illustrations for "Seeing the invisible," the website for Amano Enzyme. He has also made animation and wallpaper display illustrations for that company's exhibit "Fermentation Tourism Exhibition" (from September 17 to December 4, 2022, Kanazawa Forest of Creation in Fukui Prefecture). From November 2021 to January 2022, he held a private exhibition at the Itabashi Art Museum. For 1 year starting from April 2022, he produced visuals for the manner advertisements on the Tokyo Metro every month.

100th anniversary design message

I wanted to bless the 100th anniversary of KAMOI KAKOSHI with expressions that combine my favorite elements.

Made with the primary colors of yellow, blue, and red as well as black, that might be found in works by Mondrian, in addition to the simplicity of geometric shapes such as squares, rectangles, triangles, circles and a taste for the alphabet and decorative items, all of these elements are put together on these international signal flags.

Lisa Larson

Born in 1931 in Härlunda, in the Småland region of Sweden. She studied ceramic art at an art school in Gothenburg. After graduating, she was discovered by Stig Lindberg, and she joined the company Gustavsberg, where Lindberg was working as an art director. Larson built the golden age of Swedish ceramic art. In 1980, along with Stig Lindberg and Karin Björquist, she retired from a 26-year career at Gustavsberg as a designer representative of the company. During that time, she handled up to 300 works.

After leaving the company, and after being active as a freelancer, she opened her own ceramic studio in 1992. Collectors of her work are rapidly increasing not only in Sweden but around the world. She holds exhibitions all over the world and continues to actively create even now. Lisa Larson is an experienced older female artist who thinks of the cutest things in the world and is a representative ceramic artist of Sweden. In a forest slightly away from the city center, she continues to create.

William Morris

William Morris(1834-1896) William Morris, the great designer, poet, thinker and craftsman, was also known as the father of modern design in the latter part of 19th century in England. Morris found great values in the "pleasure of craft making" and the "beauty of natural materials," and this belief of his became a movement that spread throughout the world. Before long, it reached Japan in the Taisho period as a folk craft movement. About 120 years have passed since William Morris's death, however, the "belief" that he left has been inherited wholeheartedly and his excellent designs and styles survive to this day in Morris & Co.'s interior decor, along with an aesthetic strategy. It is created continuously and distributed around the world. It seems that his quote, "Have nothing in your house that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful," is still meaningful to us living in the present day.

OTTAIPNU

OTTAIPNU is a textile brand developed by Masaru Suzuki since 2004. It was started with the theme of "Beautiful colors and patterns, which are not always necessary, are like vitamins penetrating people's hearts." Focused on brightly colored print textiles, the collection is developed with the overflowing charm of the materials themselves, and includes items such as umbrellas, bags, towels, and handkerchiefs. In recent years, the brand provides not only textile designs, but also designs centered on colored patterns for various settings, such as furniture and architectural spaces. island universe island universe is an art project handled by 2 artists – Yusaku Fujiwara and Chiaki Kurumizawa.

Yusaku Fujiwara publishes works that gaze at our world and lives with "difference, repetition, and transference" as key themes, and Chiaki Kurumizawa publishes works such as installations and photographs with the themes of

"fluctuation and impermanence."

Along with their individual activities as artists, they also produce works that are conscious of the uniqueness of people and regions, and the connections with the worlds surrounding them. They also develop art events in Japan and overseas.
